City of Idaho City and Friends of Idaho City Invite Community to December 2 Town Hall on Ray Robison Community Hall

IDAHO CITY, Idaho – The City of Idaho City invites community members to attend a town hall meeting on Wednesday, December 2, 2026, at 7:00 PM at the Ray Robison Community Hall to discuss the future of the facility, share fundraising updates, and gather community input.

Over the past year and a half, community members, local organizations, and donors have come together to support fundraising efforts for the hall. Through community events, individual contributions, and organizational donations, these efforts have raised $XX AMOUNT to support a facility that has long served as a gathering place for Idaho City residents.

While initial fundraising efforts focused on repairing the hall's roof, additional concerns about the building's condition have highlighted the need to consider the facility's broader needs and long-term future.

“The Ray Robison Community Hall has been an important part of Idaho City for many years, and we want the community to be part of the conversation about its future,” said Mayor Ryan Heffington. “We're grateful for everyone who has supported the fundraising efforts so far, and we hope residents will join us on December 2 to share their thoughts and ideas.”

The December 2 town hall will provide an opportunity to share what is currently known, discuss ongoing fundraising efforts, hear from community members, and begin identifying priorities for the hall's future.
